

RVC For All Privacy Notice

A privacy notice is a statement that discloses some or all of the ways we as a 'Data Controller': gather, use, disclose, and manage your personal data.

What is a 'data controller'?

The data controller is the body – in this case the RVC – that determines the purposes for which and the manner in which any personal data are, or are to be, processed.

What is 'personal data' ?

Under UK Data Protection Law "personal data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable living individual. "Identifiable living individual" means a living individual who can be identified, directly or indirectly, by reference to information held and processed by the controller.

What is 'Special Category Data'?

The law provides a separate definition for special category data, which includes information about a subject's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, sexual life, or details of criminal offences.

➤ Data will only be shared using secure data transfer methods and stored by us and our partners on secure systems. We and our partners will not use your personal data in any way that would affect you individually. Where data is passed to third parties, it is done so in compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation 2018.

Decision Making and Profiling. Details of your rights are set out in more detail in the RVC's Data Protection policy which can be found on our website.

Who regulates the use of my personal information?

The RVC maintains a data protection registration with the Information Commissioner's Office, the independent authority which oversees compliance with Data Protection Law. The RVC's registration number is Z6779018. Please see the Information Commissioners Office website for details.

Who do I contact if I have questions?

If you have any questions or concerns about how your personal data is used, or you wish to exercise one of the rights outlined above please contact the RVC's Data Protection Officer: data@rvc.ac.uk
