As a part of the initial selection process, applicants will be asked to determine their fee status, based on the information provided in their application. Fee status is determined by rules set out by the UK Government. Further information can be found on the UK Council for International Student Affairs website.

Where it is not possible to determine an applicant's fee status from the information provided in their application, they may be asked to complete a fee status questionnaire. Applicants will normally be contacted prior to interview to complete their fee status questionnaire. Where an applicant fails to respond to our request to complete a fee status questionnaire, their application (and offer of a place, if applicable) may be withdrawn.

All applicants will be required to provide a copy
